IN MEMORY OF
BERNICE KLECKNER
BOIES

Born Jan. 23, 1891, Aspen Co.
Died Feb. 13, 1970, North
Las Vegas, Nev.

Her father, Thos. E. Kleckner, was a pioneer merchant and mining man of Aspen, Leadville and Columbine and her mother was Hattie Fulford, a pioneer in Eagle County.

When very young Bernice and her brother, Billy came to Brush Creek to live with their grandparents, Edward Jay and Sarah Jane Fulford. The Fulfords came to Eagle from Steele City, Neb. Mr. Fulford was a Methodist minister and Grandma Fulford was best remembered for the good meals she served to travelers between Eagle and the Fulford mining camp. The old ranch was known in those days as the Halfway House. The camp was named after Bernice's uncle, Arthur Fulford.

She and Billy, and cousin Glen Horton worked and played and went to school together. Later, about 1903, her spinster aunt, Alica Haloran was chief operator in the first telephone office in Eagle for the Eagle Valley Telephone Co. Bernice was trained to work the switchboard, run errands and deliver messages and collect for the telephone company. She worked as operator in Eagle and Glenwood Springs until her marriage to Arthur G. Whipple, a young telegraph operator at Eagle. They spent some exciting years on the D&RG Railroad at Dotsero, Minturn, Eagle and Shoshone.

Later, as a widow with two little daughters, and in ill health, Bernice moved to Rifle where she met and married John Boies, a pioneer stockman. One son, John Howard was born to this union. Her happy years in Rifle ended at the death of Mr. Boies in 1929. Bernice and her family moved to Ely, Nev. in 1930; to Las Vegas in 1931.

In 1934 she met and married William Adair and they lived in Kanab, Utah until his death, when she moved back to Las Vegas to live with her daughter, Una.

She was active in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day-Saints, took an active part on Republican committees, fund drives and was awarded a key to the city of North Las Vegas in honor of 21 years served on Clark County election boards.

She is survived by a sister, Faye Peterson-Cook of Pueblo; a son, John Howard Boies, Silt; daughters: Una Noble and Irma Nider, both of North Las Vegas, Colo.; granddaughters, Bernice Boies Cox, Danbury, Conn., Sharon Boies Medina, North Las Vegas, Nev. and two great-grandchildren.

It would save a lot of nerves if you could put a dime in a restaurant juke box and stop it from playing.

WINDY PASS

*I lope Old Roanie Through the graying sage;
And Break the skin of earth with pounding hoof:
Breathe deep the scent of peace from earth's vast cage,
Curved to the blue of my high-vaulted roof.*

*Strange silent verses whisper in my ear,
In language that has neither word or sound,
And still its rhythmic message echoes clear
Within, where nameless urgencies abound.*

*Atop my world against the glad consenting sky,
We gallop on a stone-wrought miracle;
and watch the eagle soar, majestic, high
Where the moody wind-song mutters lyrical.*

*What beckons now beyond that far divide?
What magic calls beyond that waving grass?
What hidden mysteries do there abide,
Beyond the mists and dreams of Windy pass?*

Eyer Boies, 49, Dies At Work on His Ranch

Eyer H. Boies, a native of Elko County who was chairman of the board of county commissioners and a candidate for the state senate, died of apparent natural causes Saturday evening on his ranch north of Wells.

Boies left his home on the Hubbard Ranch, about 100 miles from Elko near Contact, Saturday evening and told his wife he intended to check his irrigating water. His failure to return prompted notification of Deputy Sheriff Blaine Morrison at Jackpot, who initiated a brief search that was terminated by darkness.

The search resumed yesterday morning, and Boies was found dead in the vicinity of his pickup truck. Officials said he apparently drove to check on a stock watering spring after he completed his irrigating chores, and his vehicle was spotted from an airplane flown by Berl Mays of Thousand Springs, who directed Deputy Morrison to the site.

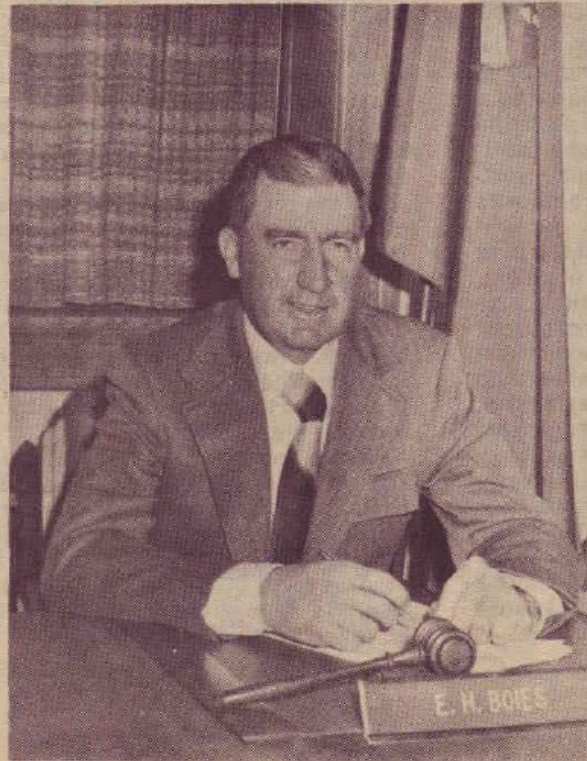

Wells Coroner Walter Thurston and Elko County Sheriff Hubert Borjas said Boies apparently had been digging out a spring when he was stricken by what appeared to have been a heart attack. The spring is located 6½ miles west of the Hubbard Ranch.

Thurston said the death seemed to be the result of natural causes and commented there was no evidence of foul play. He said he has not scheduled an autopsy.

Boies was born Oct. 30, 1926, in Starr Valley and moved with his family to the O'Neil Basin when he was four months old. He grew up in O'Neil and moved to the ranch near Contact about 25 years ago.

He was a 1951 graduate of the college of agriculture at the University of Nevada in Reno; and he served briefly a number of years ago on the board of regents of that university. He also has served on the advisory board to the college of agriculture and at the time of his death was vice chairman of the state board of agriculture.

Recently he was appointed to a newly created public lands advisory board, and he was president of the Nevada Association of County Commissioners.

Boies was serving the last year of his second term as an Elko County Commissioner; and he announced in January he intended to file as a candidate for the state senate. He filed on Feb. 9 and had been actively campaigning for the seat, which represents Elko, Humboldt, Eureka and Lander Counties.

Gov. Mike O'Callaghan yesterday issued a statement, in which he called Boies an excellent public servant as well as "a good friend and a fine example of the type of people who make Nevada ranch families a source of pride for all of us.

"I will always remember him for the open pride he showed for his parents, his wife and his children.

"He was a great cowboy."

During his career, Boies served as a director of the Nevada Cattlemen's Association and of the Nevada Taxpayers Association. He also was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Shrine.

He was educated in a country school in O'Neil through the first four grades and graduated from grammar school at Wells. He also attended high school in Wells and served as student body president there.

During World War Two he served in the U.S. Marine Corps for 26 months, 21 of those in overseas service which included combat duty on Guam and Iwo Jima.

Boies was a grandson of the late Horace Agee, a pioneer livestock man in Elko County and a prominent political force who served as a state assemblyman.

After his graduation from UNR, Boies joined his father, Oren, in operating the family ranch. At about that same time he married the former Marla Marie Mason of Lodi, Calif.

He is survived by his widow, Marla; his son, Oren Steven, who has been attending UNR and working at the ranch; two daughters, Eyla and Nina, both of Reno; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oren F. Boies, who reside at the ranch; and a sister, Mrs. Jay (Nevada) Strode of Benson, Ariz.

Funeral services are scheduled to be conducted by members of the Elko Masonic Lodge at 2 p.m. Wednesday from Burns Funeral Home in Elko, to be followed by graveside committal services in the Starr Valley Cemetery at 3:30 p.m. Wednesday.

Remembering Uncle John Baies when he worked in the Yellow Creek, Colorado area on the 84 Ranch and cattle Co. He was Foreman, Gene and Mae Hill Ranch hands and cook. The Ranch was owned by A. B. Britchlow and his wife.

They owned Thoroughbred White-faced Herford Cattle and beautiful Sorrell Morgan Horses. Lascia was about 10 years old making the date about 1908. Nina Baies, her mother, sent her over to the 84's to ride with her Uncle John. They would take their lunch and ride all day pushing cattle. Uncle John carried the 84 Stamp iron and if they come across a calf that had not been branded during Spring Round up Uncle John would rope it and Lascia would hold it while he branded and ear marked it.

She would stay over at the 84 Ranch until she would get homesick then she would go back home but she was a source of help and someone to keep Uncle John from being alone all the time. When grandpa Baies died grandma Baies moved to Rifle.

When Uncle John was at the 84's he would hire a cowboy or two to keep him in the Spring and Fall work but he worked alone during the Summer and Aunt Nina thought he needed company and help so she sent Lascia.

The 84 Ranch was bought by Harry and Grace Anderson. Their children were Ella Mae, Sam, Edna and Tom.

Mary Elizabeth Boies

Mary Elizabeth Boies was born in Kentucky December 3, 1845. At an early age she removed with her parents, who sought new homes and fortunes successively in the states of Illinois, Iowa, Missouri and Kansas, arriving at Leavenworth in the latter state in 1856. At about 15 years of age she became interested and identified with the church work in her home neighborhood.

She was married to Samuel Boies, December 25, 1863, at Lawrence, Kas. Soon after marriage the new family sought a home in Washington county, Iowa. After a few years' sojourn they returned to Kansas and remained in that state until 1878, at which time they became pioneers to Colorado and settled in Leadville.

In 1886 the family again took up the westward march and settled on Piceance creek, Rio Blanco county. From this home the husband and father was called by the "Great Father," October 5, 1904.

Mrs. Boies then removed to Rifle in the spring of 1905, where her home has been among us until called June 29, 1908.

To this family were born 11 children; 7 boys and 4 girls. Of these, 6 boys and 1 girl are still living and all but one son were with the mother at the last.

Besides children and a host of friends, she leaves four brothers and four sisters to mourn her death. One brother, Mr. W. R. Holman of Wellville, Kansas, and two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Shurman, accompanied by her husband of Burlington, Kansas, and Mrs. Annie LeMarr of Rifle are present today.

She was taken ill on Thursday evening, June 25, and so rapidly did her sickness become serious that on the following day the children were called, all of whom arrived on Saturday. All in human power was done by physicians and friends, but after much suffering she passed peacefully and quietly away at 6:30 a. m., Monday June 29.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Wm. Webster were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the First Christian church. Rev. Horace Mann, who officiated at the funeral of Mrs. Boies' husband a little over three years ago and in accordance with the wish expressed by Mrs. Boies over two years ago, spoke words of comfort to the bereaved ones on this occasion. Mrs. Boies united by letter with the First Christian church of Rifle in the spring of 1903.

The deceased was well and favorably known in this section and especially in the Piceance country, where her home was always open to the many who gladly accepted her hospitality. The following beautiful words were sent to The Reveille office this morning by Grandma Webb who is in her 93rd year:

"The tired hands are folded now,
The throbbing heart lies still.

No more by pain or grief oppressed,
Or dread of earthly ill.

The sympathy of the community is extended to the relatives in this hour of sadness. 29 June 1909

Nina Boies, County's Oldest Pioneer Passed Away Last Tuesday

Nina Louise Boies, the oldest pioneer of Rio Blanco County, passed away Tuesday of last week at Claggett Memorial Hospital in Rifle. Mrs. Boies was 88 years of age and death was mainly due to advanced years. However, she had been in poor health for some time.

Nina Louise Boies was born at Newark Valley, Nevada on May 3, 1879, the daughter of Joseph and Louise Dix Studer. Her folks were real pioneers of the west, having settled in the West long before Nevada became a state. When Mrs. Boies was only two years of age the family moved to Colorado, and located at the mouth of Douglas Creek just east of what is now the town of Rangely. Mr. Studer, in partnership with Charles Hill, opened an Indian trading post on the lower White River. They were the first white settlers to locate in this part of Colorado, setting up a trading post to trade with the Ute Indians.

It was here that Mrs. Boies spent her childhood and attended school. She saw much of the early history of this valley, it being while this was still part of Garfield County. The Studer and Hill families had established their trading post where Douglas Creek empties into White River just east of the present town of Rangely. They were there when the Ute War of 1887 took place (often called Kendall's War by the Old Timers).

On September 9, 1894, Miss Studer was united in marriage to Perry David Boies, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boies, pioneers of Piceance Creek. It was to Piceance Creek that Perry Boies brought his young bride and it was here that they started their ranching life which extended over 50 years. Their first holdings were on Fawn Creek but during the years they added to their ranch and cattle holdings. During the many years they lived on the Creek they both took an interest and most active part in the community affairs. They were well known in all parts of the county.

It was on this same ranch that Mr. and Mrs. Boies celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary in 1944. This was quite an affair and was attended by friends and relatives from many parts of the state. Mrs. Boies was a very witty person and she kept the guests well entertained reminiscing of the happenings over the fifty years and during her long life in Rio Blanco County.

After retiring from the ranch, Mr. and Mrs. Boies moved to Rifle to make their home and it was there that Mrs. Boies passed away in 1952 after 58 years of marriage. Mrs. Boies continued to make her home in Rifle, but often visited her old home on the creek and with friends in Meeker. She was a wonderfully active and energetic person and she was the life of the party wherever she was, and her friends were legion, for to know Nina Boies was to love her.

The deceased, who was the oldest living pioneer of the valley, it being 86 years from the time her folks established their home at Studer-Hill Trading Post until she passed away at her Rifle home, had a long and useful life, one filled with history and memories of the history of Northwestern Colorado.

The deceased leaves to mourn her passing, one son, Oren Boies of Contact, Nevada; five daughters: Mrs. Clarence (Lasca) Maxwell of Golconda, Nevada, Mrs. Hugh (I-one) van Bergen of Vallejo, Calif., Mrs. Whaley (Albertena) Wallther, of Galt, Calif.; 19 grandchildren; 60 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by one son, Eyer Boies, in February 1959 and a daughter, Effie.

Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. from the Christian Church in Rifle, with Rev. Otto Duckworth officiating. Interment was in Rose Hill Cemetery in Rifle, with Sowder Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

CELEBRATE 56th ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Boies of Rifle, surrounded by their children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren and friends, last Sunday celebrated their fifty-sixth wedding anniversary at their Rifle home at 436 East 5th st.

Thirty-four persons sat down to the wedding dinner, which was served at 2 o'clock. Following the cutting of the cake, Mr. and Mrs. Boies proceeded to unwrap and put on display their many beautiful gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Boies are long-time residents of Piceance Creek, having come into the community in the year 1894. Prior to their settlement in the Piceance Creek country, Mrs. Boies had come from the state of Nevada in 1882. Mrs. Boies says that their neighbors were mostly the Ute Indians, who were friendly and helpful.

Perry Boies was born at Coffeyville, Kan., in 1873, moving later to Leadville and then to the Piceance country. Mrs. Boies (Miss Nina Louise Studder) was born at Newark Valley, Nev., in 1879. Mr. and Mrs. Boies were married in 1894 by Justice of the Peace T. C. Bailey of Grand Valley, who had come to Piceance Creek for the occasion. The Boies immediately began their house-keeping in the vicinity that was to be their home until they retired to Rifle two years ago.

At the time of their marriage the state of Colorado was only 16 years old and practically none of the towns along the Grand River had come into existence. The family supplies had to be brought from Meeker, a distance of fifty miles.

Mr. and Mrs. Boies may be said to have been the unofficial Godparents to most of the next generation born on the creek. Mrs. Boies acting also as nurse to many families at the time of the coming of the babies. Today these two people bask in the love and affection of a great host of warm friends, who remember them and their many kindnesses in days past.

Mr. and Mrs. Boies proceeded to cut their wedding cake in true bride and groom fashion, the cake being decorated with the bride and groom which had stood on the original wedding cake fifty-six years ago.

The profession of the family over the years was that of ranching.

Those present at the anniversary were; Charles and Grace Van Nattan of Colorado Springs, Marvin L. Cox and Mrs. R. H. Holder and Claydene of Montrose. Mr. and Mrs. Art Ebler, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Ebler and Connie of Rio Blanco, Mr. and Mrs. Eyer Boies of Piceance Creek, Mr. and Mrs. Bus Norrell, Mrs. Ollie Duckett, Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Cole and Sylvia, T. L. Morgan and Teddy, Ed Boies, Ed Holder, Patty Holder, Eddie D. Holder, Frank and Katherine Lenz, Rev. and Mrs. Otto B. Duckworth and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Boies.

Obituary. 6 Oct. 1904

Samuel Boies was born in Brighton, Columbia county, Ohio, March 4th, 1835; died October 6th, 1904.

Had he lived, he would have been 69 years of age at his next birthday. He came to Colorado in '59 and after a couple of years residence returned to Ohio. He again returned to this state in '76.

Mr. Boies was well known throughout this section and especially at Leadville as an experienced prospector. He moved to the Piceance neighborhood in '86 and has lived there continuously since that time, making occasional prospecting tours into other sections.

Samuel Boies was married 41 years ago to Mary E. Holman at Lawrence, Kas., and he leaves the wife and seven children (six boys and one girl) and a sister, to mourn his loss. There are also four grand-children. The relatives are all here, except one son. It will be remembered a brother, T. W. Boies was killed one year ago.

The funeral services were held in this city last Friday from Odd Fellows' hall and many sorrowing friends were in attendance. Rev. Mann officiated. Interment was in Rose Hill cemetery.

Thus another esteemed old-time citizen is removed from our midst.

Peace to his ashes.

Death of Samuel Boies.

Samuel Boies, an aged and highly respected citizen of Piceance, died on Wednesday forenoon of typhoid pneumonia, at the home of Ben Hynds, near New Castle. Mr. Boies and Mr. Hynds were old friends and enjoying a visit together.

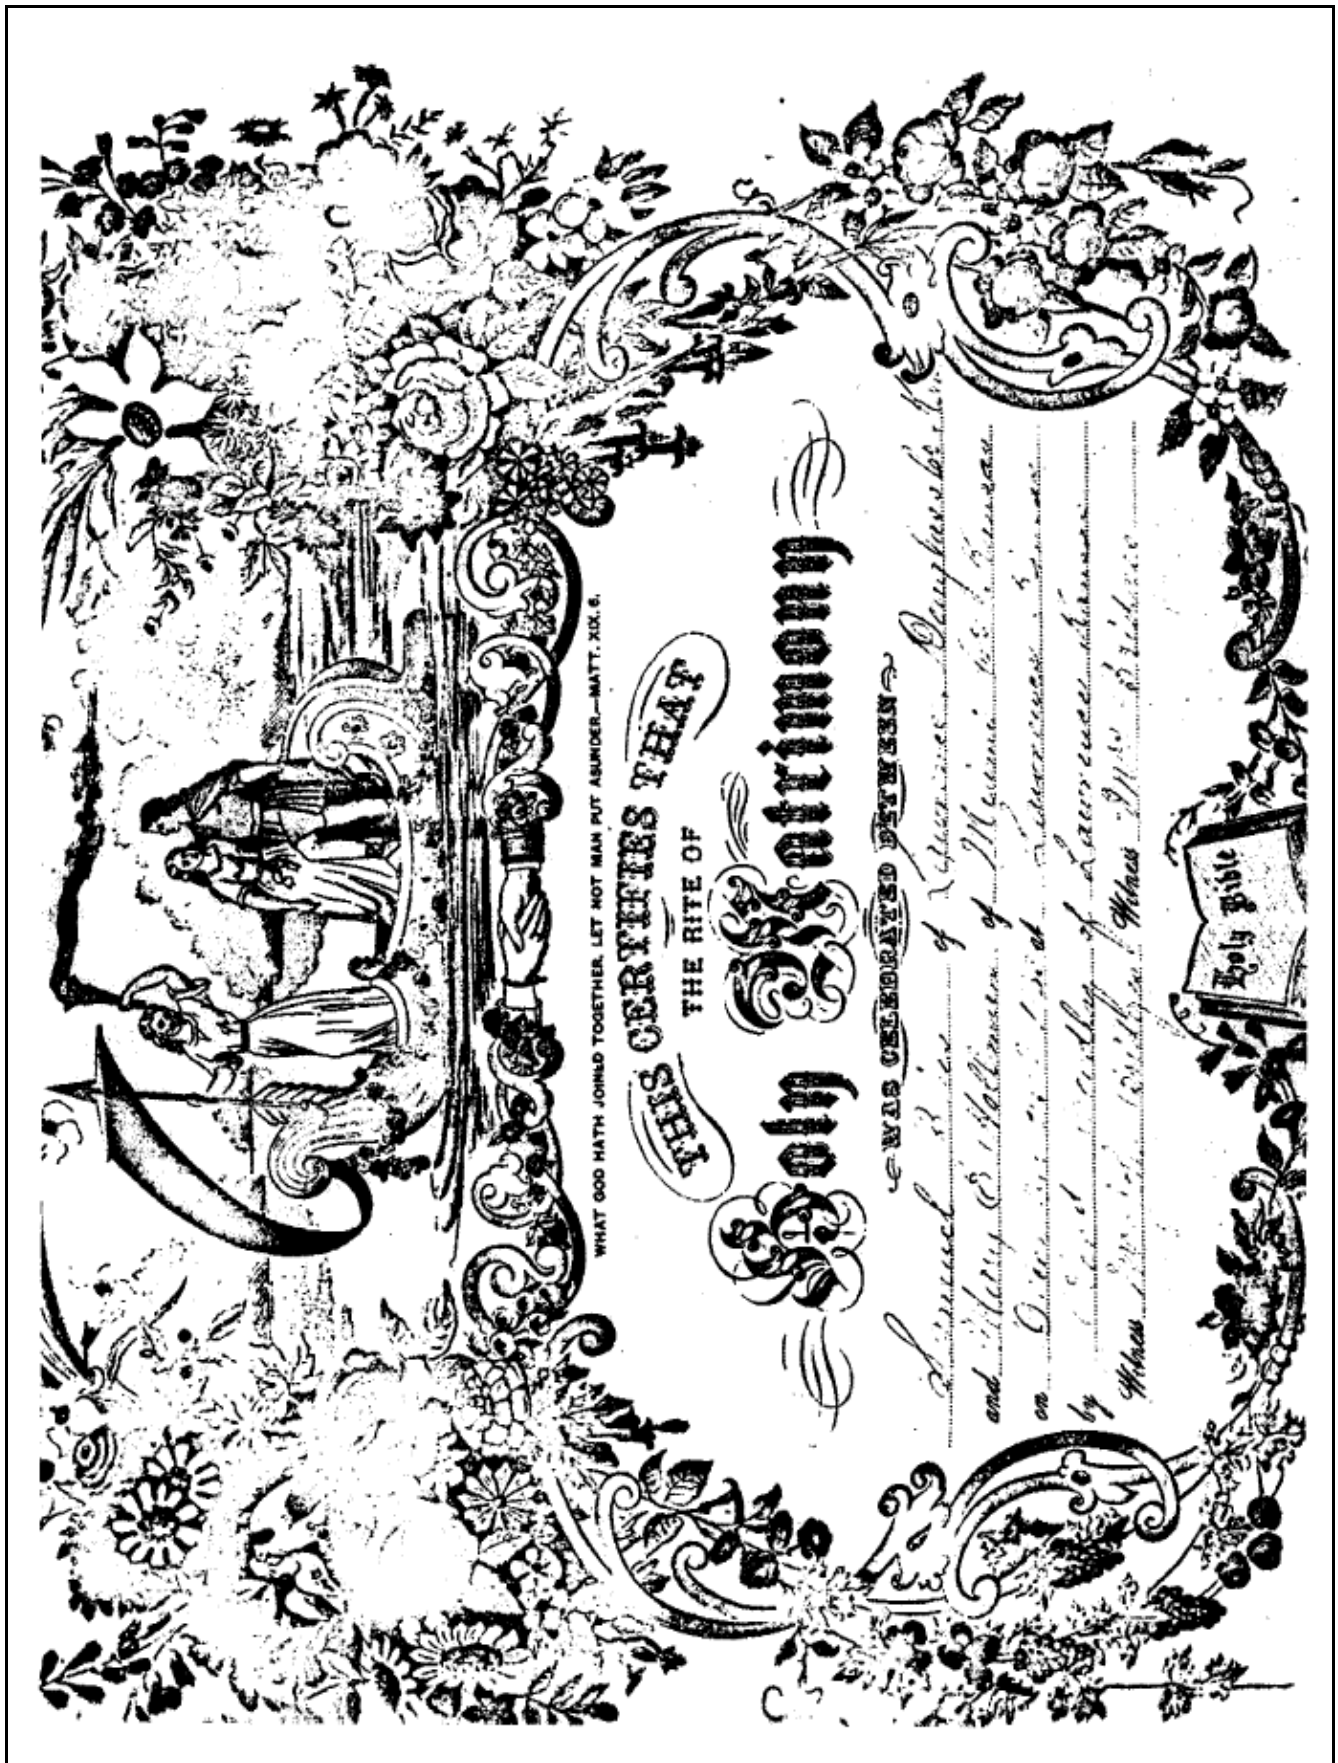

Mr. Boies went to New Castle about ten days ago, and while suffering with a cold, his condition was not considered alarming until a short time before his death. Members of the family were sent for, but Mr. Boies had passed to the great beyond a few hours before they arrived.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from Odd Fellows hall, the interment being in Rose Hill cemetery. Rev. Horace Mann officiated.

Samuel Boies was a pioneer of Colorado, being a '79er in Leadville, and for nearly a score of years resided on Piceance creek, Rio Blanco county. He was 68 years old on March 4, 1904.

Death of T. W. Boies.

On Tuesday, August 11, 1903, T. W. Boies passed from this life in Meeker, Rio Blanco county, Colorado, the immediate cause of death being acute Bright's disease, probably intensified by a recent accident in which deceased was thrown from his buggy on the Coal creek road.

Deceased was born in Columbiana county, Ohio, on March 18, 1827. He leaves two sons and two daughters, a brother and a sister to mourn his loss. Mrs. Fanny Derry, a daughter, lives in Leadville. The other daughter lives in Portland, Oregon, where it is believed one of the sons also resides. The other son was a conductor on the Rio Grande for ten years, but is now in Texas. His brother Samuel, of Piceance creek, and Mrs. Sadie McCallum, of Nebraska, a sister, also survive him.

Mr. Boies was initiated into the Masonic fraternity in Washington, Iowa, in 1865 or '66. Later he transferred to Nebraska City, Nebraska, where he is said to have held a life membership card in Western Star No. 2 lodge.

He had been a splendid business man and up to within a few years was actively engaged. After leaving Ohio in 1852 he engaged in business in Muscatine and Washington, Iowa. In 1864 he was reputed to be worth $100,000. He gave his four children a splendid education while he had the means.

In 1868 he removed to Nebraska City, where he engaged in the lumber business. In 1880 he removed to Colorado; he afterward went to Oklahoma, and about three years ago returned to Colorado. For about eighteen months he has been in Rio Blanco county, and though offered a home with his brother preferred to make his own way. It is only about three years ago that he lost his arm through a railroad accident.

The funeral occurred at 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning, under the auspices of Rio Blanco Lodge No. 80, A. F. & A. M., interment being in Highland cemetery under the direction of Undertaker H. E. Holloway. The pall bearers were Reuben Oldland, W. H. Clark, David Smith, George E. Alcher, E. E. Fordham and J. L. McHatton.

His daughter at Leadville was the wife of Mr. Derry, one of the first owners of the celebrated Long & Derry mine. Mr. Derry also owned a ranch between Leadville and Twin Lakes.

The one object of the deceased during the past year was to accumulate enough money to visit the St. Louis fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Boies, for themselves and the other relatives, desire to thank those who assisted their brother during his last illness; and for the sympathy expressed after his death and other kindly acts. They desire particularly to thank Rio Blanco Lodge No. 80, A. F. & A. M.
